

UPCYCLED/REPURPOSED PHOTO CONTEST!

To upcycle or repurpose is to make something new from waste material or an existing product. Be creative!

As part of UNTHSC's Earth Day Event on Tuesday, April 17th, the Office of Sustainability is hosting a photo contest and gallery of Upcycled and Repurposed items!

How to Enter: It's FREE! Fill out the form (info below) and submit hard-copy photos by the deadline to Facilities Management, Room 110. Photos must be 5" X 7" and can be any orientation. They can easily be printed at places like Walgreens, CVS, Target, etc.

Rules:

- You may submit photos for up to two projects.
- You can submit a "before" photo with each project, but it is not required.
- Each item must be something you personally made or repurposed.

Display:

- The photos will be displayed at the event, but names will not be attached to the photos.
- In addition to providing a photo, you may display the actual item at the event (optional).
- Please bring the item to the event on April 17th.

Prizes:

- The winners will be determined by votes on the day of the event.
- First, second, and third places will be awarded $50, $25, and $10 gift cards to Amazon.com.
- Winners will be announced on Wednesday, April 18th.

How to Enter: Submit the form found at sustainability.unthsc.edu under News.

Deadline: You must submit the form and the photo(s) by 4 pm on Friday, April 13th.
