COURSE OVERVIEW
The third annual Best Practices in Hospital Medicine is designed to provide hospitalists, internists and other healthcare professionals the latest information on a broad range of topics specifically related to inpatient management and care. Current controversies and new research will be discussed in practical terms with ample time for interactive Q&A. Each presentation will include “take-aways” that attendees can implement immediately upon return to practice.
An optional Fundamental Critical Care Support certification course is offered, making a total of 36 AOA and ACCME credits available.

TARGET AUDIENCE
This activity is thoughtfully designed to meet the educational needs of those who care for patients in a hospital setting, including hospitalists, internists, primary care PAs and NPs.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES
Those participating in this activity will receive information that should allow them to...
- Identify common issues and diagnoses related to inpatient clinical presentation;
- Compare and contrast therapeutic strategies to common inpatient disorders;
- Explore controversies related to established and recent data in inpatient care; and
- Describe challenges and opportunities related to the field of hospital medicine and those who practice in a hospital setting.

ACTIVITY LOCATION & LODGING
This activity is being held at the conference center at Copper Mountain Resort in Copper Mountain, Colorado. The resort is located 75 miles (121 kilometers) west of Denver and 20 miles (32 kilometers) east of Vail off Interstate 70 at exit 195, easily accessible from both the Denver International Airport and Eagle County Airport.

Copper Mountain is the perfect winter conference destination, with comfortable, state-of-the-art meeting facilities. When the conference is not in session, fun can be found for all ages. Take in the snow-in-your-face thrill of snow tubing, stop by the CopperCade, or unwind at the Athletic Club with a swim in the pool. Perhaps you would like a horse-drawn sleigh ride through the White River National Forest, culminating in a scrumptious cowboy dinner in an authentic 18th century miner’s tent. Other seasonal activities include snowshoeing, snowmobiling or fishing in this Colorado winter wonderland. Whatever you choose, be sure to make Copper Mountain, Colorado, your winter vacation resort.

A block of rooms has been held at Copper Mountain Resort for this conference. The following, deeply discounted room rates are available (listed prices do not include applicable taxes):
