Message from the Provost

I am honored to serve as the Provost of the UNT Health Science Center where we "create solutions for healthier communities." As a distinguished institution with six outstanding colleges, I have the privilege of working with incredible students, innovative faculty and great staff who all come together to achieve our academic goals. We are One University, built on values, committed to defining and producing the providers of the future. As Provost, I am committed to promoting academic excellence in all that I do every day.

Charles Taylor, PharmD
Provost and Executive Vice President
