

Doug Mains, DrPH, MPAff, MBA

Doug is Executive Director of Accreditation and Institutional Effectiveness in University Assessment and Accreditation and Adjunct Associate Professor, Health Behavior and Health Systems at HSC Fort Worth. His main responsibilities include institutional accreditation and program assessment. Doug currently serves as the SACSCOC accreditation liaison for UNTHSC. He holds Master of Public Affairs and Master of Business Administration degrees from the University of Texas at Austin and a Doctorate in Public Health from the University of Texas Houston School of Public Health. Dr. Mains has served as Manager for Planning and Evaluation with the City of Dallas Department of Health and Human Services and as a management consultant with West Hudson and Co. where he assisted hospitals in the development of management processes to improve productivity and reduce costs. Dr. Mains has taught Health Administration, Program Planning and Evaluation, Organizational Management, and Lean Concepts for Health and Public Health in the HSC Fort Worth School of Public Health.

Strengths: Achiever, Analytical, Connectedness, Discipline, Learner