

Instructors Needed for MCAT Examcrackers

Posted 11/16/11

Examcrackers, Inc. is a test preparation company with a passion for excellence. We are currently looking for instructors to teach our Medical College Admissions Test (MCAT) preparation classes. The position is part time in the evenings from 4 to 6 hours a week. Talented, first time teachers can earn an excellent starting salary + bonus based on student evaluations.

The science knowledge required is at a first year undergraduate level; however, the test questions use a holistic approach and require a deep understanding of the subject matter. The students are highly motivated premeds making the instructor's job both challenging and rewarding. We strive to make any association with our organization a pleasurable and rewarding experience whether you are an instructor or a student.

Requirements:

Applicant must be passionate about teaching and about the subject matter. Applicants must have a thorough understanding of any and all of the following:

1st yr. undergraduate biology including some physiology

1st yr. undergraduate organic chemistry

1st yr. undergraduate inorganic chemistry

1st yr. undergraduate physics

Applicants should be punctual, reliable, organized and enthusiastic!

Interested applicants should send a resume and MCAT scores to:
