Starting a New Organization

All student organizations must be recognized as official organizations in order to receive funding from student service fees. In order to be recognized and receive funding, the organization in question must contact the Office of Student Development and complete the appropriate paperwork.

All NEW RSO's must submit their requests to start a new organization before January 15th of the current fiscal year to be considered for the next fiscal year budget. Any new organization requests received outside of that time period can be approved as a registered student organization, but will not be considered for funding. RSOs may be required to present their proposed budget to the Student Fee Advisory Committee in the Spring in order to be considered for funding for the upcoming fiscal year.

STEPS TO BECOMING A REGISTERED STUDENT ORGANIZATION:

- Step 1: The organization must prepare a written constitution/ by-laws.
- Step 2: The organization must have a UNTHSC faculty or staff advisor.
- Step 3: The organization must have a President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer.
- Step 4: The Organization must have at least 10 interested members.
- Step 5: The Organization must submit the constitution/ by-laws, risk management policy, a list of a minimum of ten interested members, the top 4 officers, and the advisor name to the Office of Student Department by registering through Engage.
- Step 6: The Student Fee Advisory Committee will meet to approve all new student organizations at UNTHSC and their startup funding the next fiscal year.
The Constitution and By-laws

According to Robert's Rules of Order, an organization forming a constitution and by-laws should begin by reviewing copies of those documents that have been adopted by similar organizations. Select one as a basis for your own and amend each article to reflect your organization’s goals and objectives.

It is recommended that both a constitution and by-laws be created as two separate sections of one document. A constitution is the rules that the society consider so important that they cannot easily be changed or suspended. The constitution should contain the primary characteristics of the society and how it functions:

- Name of organization
- Organizational History
- Purpose of Organization
- Qualification(s) of members
- Officers and duties
- How to amend the Constitution

The by-laws should contain all other standing rules of the society. The by-laws should be much easier to change than the articles of the constitution. The bylaws should contain the rules of the society:

- Officer election process
- Meetings of the society (essential only)
- Membership Dues
- Committees
- Rules of Order
- How to amend the by-laws

For resources on how to develop a constitution or by-laws, you may request the “Roberts Rules of Order” book via a payment request through Engage. The payment request must be a minimum of $25.00.
Sample Constitution

Article I: Official Name of Organization

Article II: Organizational History (date founded and founders)

Article III: Purpose of Organization

Article IV: Membership
  □ Requirements and procedure for joining and recruitment

Article V: Officers
  □ Prerequisites of each officer
  □ Job descriptions for officer positions
  □ Appointed positions Volunteer positions Officer replacement

Article VI: Amendments
  □ Passing requirements (2/3 majority, etc.)
  □ Time frame for notice to be given

Sample By-Laws

Article I: Officer Elections
  □ Nomination procedures and time frames
  □ Election procedures and time frames

Article II: Meetings
  □ Frequency of regular meetings
  □ Procedure for calling emergency or special meetings or identify who presides in absence of the president Proxy authorization
  □ Identify quorum for voting
  □ Identify voting and non-voting membership

Article III: Rules of Order
  □ Brief statement of how meetings will be conducted
  □ Quorum (% needed for a vote)

Article IV: Membership Dues

Article V: Committees

Article VI: Amendments
  □ Passing requirements (2/3 majority, etc.)
  □ Time frame for notice to be given