

Students interested in the PCPP will be part of an academic cohort to maximize learning benefits. The shared group experience of knowledge, diversity of backgrounds and perspective will enhance student's critical thinking skills.

MIDLAND COLLEGE CURRICULUM

Year 1 Fall Semester

- Freshman Composition I
- General Biology I /Lab
- College Algebra
- Anatomy & Physiology I /Lab

Year 1 Spring Semester

- Technical Writing
- General Biology II /Lab
- Pre-Calculus
- Anatomy & Physiology II /Lab

Summer I

- General Inorganic Chem I /Lab
- Statistics

Summer II

- General Inorganic Chem II /Lab
- Social/Behavioral Science

Year 2 Fall Semester

- Organic Chemistry I /Lab
- College Physics I
- Microbiology for Majors /Lab
- Core Curriculum Choice

Year 2 Spring Semester

- Organic Chemistry II /Lab
- College Physics II
- Health & Wellness
- Core Curriculum Choice
- Core Curriculum Choice

Core curriculum choices include History, Government, Art, Communication, Humanities, Psychology, Sociology, and Kinesiology.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH TEXAS CURRICULUM

Year 3 Fall Semester

- Genetics
- Advanced Biology
- Biochemistry
- Advanced Biology/Lab
- Elective

Year 3 Spring Semester

- Comparative Animal Physiology
- Cell Biology
- Medical Bacteriology/Lab
- Advanced Biology
- Elective

UNTHSC – TEXAS COLLEGE OF OSTEOPATHIC MEDICINE CURRICULUM

Years 1 and 2: Didactic phase: diagnosis and pathophysiology of organ systems of the body

- Cellular and Molecular Biology
- Musculoskeletal and Skin System
- Nervous System
- Cardiopulmonary System
- Gastrointestinal and Renal Systems
- Foundations of Osteopathic Medicine
- Medical Practice
- Endocrine and Reproductive Systems
- Immunology and Hematology
- Diseases and Treatments

Years 3 and 4: Clinical phase: Core rotations

- Family Medicine
- Internal Medicine
- Surgery
- Pediatrics
- Obstetrics and Gynecology
- Osteopathic Manipulative Medicine
- Psychiatry
- Primary Care
- Emergency Medicine
- Geriatrics
- Elective Rotations