Integrity

Uphold the highest ethical standards

Be Transparent in Actions

Integrity through being transparent in actions to me means standing up to take ownership of your own mistakes and the mistakes of those that report to you. The most efficient way to a solution always starts with realizing why something went wrong in the first place, instead of trying to avoid taking the blame.

- Meagan Cross
Associate Registrar

Being transparent doesn't always mean telling the entire story. There are some things that people do not need to know during certain discussions or timeframes. However, sometimes, it may mean simply saying, "I know a little bit about what you're asking, but I am not able to discuss it at this point. We are getting there. I will share this with you when I can."
