

People Partners Leaders

Serve Others First

Consider the Impact of Your Decisions

This behavior is the most important one to me for this value. It means being aware that we all are connected and that the decisions each one of us makes will inevitably affect others around us. The key is to consider others and their needs; we only need a minute to stop and reflect on how the decisions we are making will affect others.

- Myriam Martinez- Banuelos
Outreach Librarian